Project Brief:

I will create a website that can be used as an online resume. It will have many pages, such as experience, skills, and contact information. Also, It will contain a portfolio for future employers. This website will match my bubbly personality and will include an about me section.